COMPLETING YOUR REPORT: The AAIV report form is in writable pdf format. Complete all sections, sign and submit with appropriate documentation to the Academic Integrity Officer via e-mail (see below). Please type your responses; if handwriting responses, please use blue/black ink only.

- Student Name: First and last name; please also provide the student's CUNYfirst ID number, if readily available.
- Explanation of Incident: This section should address the actual incident ; please provide as much detail as possible. Feel free to attach supplemental pages as needed.
- Further Explanation if needed: Use this section to provide details on your interactions with the student, student's overall course performance, and any other contextual information you'd like to include.
- Further Intervention by the Academic Integrity Officer? YES/NO. Use this section to indicate what kind of intervention you would seek from this Office. Please note that the level of intervention by the Academic Integrity Unit is ultimately determined by the Academic Integrity Officer.
 - YES: We will engage directly with student, either to conduct a formal review or simply to ensure that s/he understands the mutual resolution you've achieved.
 - NO: We will send an official letter advising the student that we are aware of the incident, that they are on file with our office, and that they must sign and return the acknowledgement statement provided.
- Referral to Faculty Student Disciplinary Committee? YES/NO. Use this section to indicate whether or not you feel consideration of disciplinary sanctions (suspension, expulsion, non-conferral of degree, etc.) is warranted. Please note that referral for disciplinary consideration is at the discretion of the Academic Integrity Officer.
- PEN Grade Requested? YES/NO. PEN is a temporary course grade given to indicate that an alleged academic integrity incident is under review. When the issue is resolved, the PEN is replaced by the true final grade determined by the instructor.

SUPPORTING MATERIALS: Along with your completed report, please provide as much as you have available of the following:
