

The Academic Integrity Office: Supporting Students

We provide counseling and advisement:

- Orientation as to how John Jay College “does” academic integrity.
- Guidance in identifying and avoiding the triggers that lead to academic integrity violations.
- Tips for generating and maintaining action plans to prevent academic dishonesty:
 - Time management and supportive learning habits.
 - How to seek help and give help without compromising your integrity.
 - How to talk through AI concerns with your instructors, advisors, classmates, teammates, study pals and project buddies.

We offer support and referral to service:

- Writing, Math Centers and ESL support services for strengthening your writing, editing and organizational skills.
- Library Services to develop strong research and source evaluation techniques
- Counseling Services and Academic Advisement for support when overwhelmed.
- Accessibility Services for special accommodations.

For more information, contact:

Jennifer Dobbins, Academic Integrity Officer
Room 601.05, Haaren Hall
e-mail: jedobbins@jjay.cuny.edu
Phone: (646) 557-4576

