TO: The John Jay College Community

FROM: Karol V. Mason
President

SUBJECT: Search Launch for Provost & Vice President for Academic Affairs

I am pleased to announce that John Jay College of Criminal Justice is launching an open nationwide search for the individual who will be the next Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs. I write to share with you information about the search, the members of the Search Committee, and how you can get involved.

Search Committee & Search Firm:

I have selected a Search Committee (listed below) including faculty members, students, and administrators from across the college who have diverse experiences and backgrounds. John Jay College has also retained the search firm Diversified Search to assist our Search Committee. Dr. Kim M. Morrisson and Mr. Andrew C. Wheeler from Diversified Search will be collaborating with us on this effort and will help to recruit highly qualified candidates for review by the Search Committee and myself. With their assistance, we are confident that John Jay College will attract a highly qualified and diverse pool of candidates.

Search Process:

The Search Committee is committed to conducting the broadest possible national search for a candidate of exceptional quality. Advertisements for the position will appear in The

New York Times, The Chronicle of Higher Education, Inside Higher Education, Women in Higher Education, Journal of Blacks in Higher Education, Hispanic Outlook, Diverse Education, and other outlets. Nominations or inquiries from interested individuals should be sent via email to: JohnJayProvost@divsearch.com.

Opportunities for Input:

I encourage the John Jay College community to provide input on this important search by participating in one of the listening sessions that will be held by the Search Consultants to assist in the development of the job posting (schedule below).

I want to extend my thanks to the members of the Search Committee for giving their time to this important search, and also to thank those of you who already have contributed to the search process with your time and your advice.
