WHAT WILL YOU LEARN IN THIS MAJOR?

In the Criminal Justice Management major you will develop the leadership, supervision and management skills you will need for promotion to and success in command, supervisory and executive positions in criminal justice agencies. You will acquire skills that develop your leadership potential, decision-making ability, financial acumen, and problem-solving capacity to analyze complex administrative problems that beset criminal justice agencies.

In class, you will learn methods of program planning and policy analysis while conducting guided exercises and case studies directed at solving criminal justice-related policy problems. In short, you will learn much about what works and what doesn't work in the criminal justice system and acquire the tools to help you be a more effective criminal justice leader.

IN THIS MAJOR YOU WILL ■■■

Read about the best practices of successful criminal justice leaders.
