

RESEARCH

& Creativity

EXPO

MAY 1-MAY 10, 2024

The 2024 Research & Creativity Expo, coordinated each year by the Office for Student Research & Creativity, will be presented in a variety of formats, organized by the programs and disciplines listed below. Every year, John Jay College undergraduate and graduate students participate in the Expo, displaying works that cover a multitude of disciplines and led by dedicated faculty and administrative mentors. Projects range from two semester-long capstone or thesis projects to long-term student-faculty collaborative work leading to publications, theses, or other proposals and external presentations.

Please join us in celebrating our and your students' success!

---

MAY
1

John Jay Singers: A Tribute to Broadway

Hound Square | 1:30–2:00 PM

The John Jay Singers Association will usher in the commencement of the 2024 Research & Creativity Expo with a live vocal performance led by Professor Gregory Sheppard, Director.

Student Presentations

Hound Square | 2:00–2:30 PM

Select student researchers will share their research with the College community through live presentation slides and engage in interesting dialogue with their peers.

Balcony Gallery

New Building, First Floor Balcony Gallery | 2:30–3:00 PM

Student artwork from the studio art program over the past academic year will be displayed during the Expo and throughout the following summer and fall sessions and celebrated with a small reception open to the College community.

John Jay's Finest

New Building, 9.64 | 4:00–5:30 PM

John Jay's Finest is an annual publication honoring outstanding student writing from across the undergraduate curriculum. As every year, writings featured in the 2024 anthology have been nominated by the student-writers' professors and vetted by the publication's editors.

Annual Faculty Mentor & Administration Recognition Reception with Office for Student Research & Creativity Student Presentations

New Building, Moot Court, 6.68 | 5:30–7:30 PM | By Invitation Only*

On occasion of the Annual Faculty Mentor Recognition Reception, honoring all faculty & administrators who have given their valued time and support to so many John Jay students, the OSRC will award the winners of the annual OSRC Outstanding Faculty Mentor Awards. During the entirety of the event, this year's 16 OSRC scholars present their final projects in the form of poster boards, which represent a diverse set of research and creative projects.

MAY
2

Anthropology

New Building, Room L.61 | 1:30–3:00 PM

Anthropology students will host a live panel discussion to discuss critical tools they learned from the discipline and how these tools may be applied to the wider world.

MAY
3

Psychology Master's Student Research Group

New Building, Moot Court, 6.68 | 9:00 AM–4:00 PM

The Master's Student Research Group (MSRG) hosts a conference each spring semester where students in the Forensic Psychology Master's program showcase their research. This year will include both traditional poster exhibitions and short verbal presentations. The conference is an opportunity to learn about new insights coming from John Jay's forensic psychology students while connecting with peers in the field.

MAY
6

8th Annual ePortfolio Showcase

Atrium | 1:30–3:00 PM

The John Jay ePortfolio Program will host student ePortfolio presentations, interviews with John Jay alumni, and the unveiling of the 8th Annual ePortfolio Showcase 2024 site which spotlights the best John Jay student ePortfolios.

Criminal Justice

Hound Square | 3:00–4:30 PM

Students from across the criminal justice major from the 2023-2024 academic year will present their research projects in various formats.

MAY
7

McNair Post-Baccalaureate Achievement Program

New Building, Moot Court, 6.68 | 1:30–3:00 PM

The John Jay McNair Post-Baccalaureate Achievement Program will conduct the McNair alumni panel on research and graduate school as well as the McNair poster presentations by current scholars.

PRISM Undergraduate Research Poster Board Session

Hound Square | 1:30–3:00 PM

Program for Research Initiatives in Science and Math students will showcase their research poster presentations in forensic science, toxicology, cell, and molecular biology, chemistry, environmental science, and computer science.

PRISM Undergraduate Research Dinner & Award Ceremony

New Building, Student Dining Hall & Bistro Area | 4:00–7:00 PM

A celebration of our PRISM Undergraduate Researchers at John Jay, including research presentations by our Outstanding Undergraduate Researcher, and this year's JJ and PRISM alumni keynote speaker.

MAY
8

The Vertical Writing Program @ John Jay College

New Building, Room 9.64 | 1:30–3:00 PM

Writers from the First-Year Writing Program, the Writing and Rhetoric Minor, and the Writing Across the Curriculum Program will read, present, perform, and discuss their impressive and diverse work including: memoir, literacy narrative, podcasts, creative nonfiction, research-based academic writing, legal and business writing, expository essays, spoken word, rhetorical analysis, and multi-genre/multimodal works.

International Criminal Justice

Hound Square | 1:30–3:00 PM

Students from across the international criminal justice major from the 2023-2024 academic year will present their research projects in various formats.

Computer Science and Mathematics

Hound Square | 1:30–3:00 PM

Computer Science and Mathematics students will present their creative work and research performed during the 2023/2024 academic year.

Eastern State Penitentiary Presentations

New Building, Room 9.64 | 5:00–7:00 PM

Students from CJBA 380 and COR 303 will present their findings and insights from their trip to the famed Eastern State Penitentiary with the College community.

MAY
8

Seeing Rape

Gerald W. Lynch Theater | 6:00–7:30 PM

Seeing Rape encapsulates various short plays centered upon sexualized violence and harm to encourage dialogue and understanding regarding the issue of rape. Beginning in the course, “Sex, Gender, and Justice: Seeing Rape,” taught by Professors Shonna Trinch and Barbara Cassidy, students write plays about sexualized assault and its intersections with culture, which are then performed by professional actors for the college community at the Gerald Lynch Theater. Seeing Rape has been seen by more than 8,000 people in the theater and almost 100,000 people online. The project celebrates its eleventh year of production.

MAY
9

Honors and Macaulay Poster Session

Hound Square | 1:30–3:00 PM

The Honors Program poster session is a showcase of Honors students’ scholarship and creativity across multiple disciplines.

ePortfolio Showcase Award Ceremony

New Building, Room 9.64 | 1:30–3:00 PM

The John Jay ePortfolio Program will award the best ePortfolios voted by John Jay College faculty and staff, as well as the Blood Hound’s Choice Award which is voted by the John Jay community.

Seeing Rape

Gerald W. Lynch Theater | 1:30–3:00 PM

Seeing Rape encapsulates various short plays centered upon sexualized violence and harm to encourage dialogue and understanding regarding the issue of rape. Full details provided on May 8th entry.

Annual Graduate Student Research Symposium

New Building, Moot Court, 6.68 | 6:00–8:00 PM

The annual Graduate Student Research Symposium will provide graduate students an opportunity to share their research and scholarly projects with the John Jay Community in various formats. It is a great way to engage with peers, professors, alumni, and mentors beyond the classroom.

MAY 10

Honors and Macaulay Capstone Competition & Awards

New Building, Moot Court, 6.68 | 9:00 AM–4:00 PM

Students who are nominated and selected as finalists for the capstone awards will give ten-minute oral presentations on their capstone projects.

The OSRC would like to express sincere gratitude for co-sponsorship of select events to:

The Office of the Provost

Program for Research Initiatives in Science & Math (PRISM)